Grand Democratic Mass Meeting

At Fort Wayne Tuesday, October 7th. A grand Mass Meeting of the Democracy of North-Eastern Indiana will be held at Fort Wayne on Tuesday the 7th October next, to which the democracy of the entire surrounding country are invited. Several of the most distinguished statesmen and orators of the Country have been solicited to participate, some or all of whom are confidently expected to be present.

Democratic Meeting.
To make arrangements for the Mass Meeting on the 7th October next.

The Democrats of Allen County are requested to meet in the Court-house on MONDAY evening next at half past 7 o'clock to appoint Committees and make other necessary arrangements for the Great Mass Meeting to be held here on Tuesday, the 7th October next.

The State Election.—The result of the approaching election in this state is of the utmost importance, not only to our own citizens, but to the whole Union. Coming within a month of the Presidential contest, and being the first election in the free & true state since the nomination of Buchanan, the result is looked to with the utmost anxiety, as an index how these states will go in November; and will exert a powerful influence in deciding the fate of other states for the Presidency. The census here has turned almost exclusively upon national politics, but little has been said, to state affairs or our candidates for state offices. Our citizens would do well to reflect on the importance of this election; let them remember the almost irredeemable ruin and bankruptcy the mismanagement of the whig party, while in power, brought upon our state, and the success which has crowned the efforts of the democrats in retrieving our affairs from the almost hopeless position the whigs had placed them in. Remember the imbecility and inefficiency displayed by the late fusion Legislature, and decide whether that party is worthy of support, or ought to be entrusted with power.—Two U. S. Senators are also to be elected by the Legislature, which gives an additional interest to the election of that body; and every democrat should feel the absolute necessity of using every effort to elect a majority of the Legislature and the State ticket by an overwhelming majority as will satisfy the Union that Indiana will be sound right in November. On the result of our state election may depend the election of President.

The election of members of Congress also is of vital importance. Indiana must be redeemed, and represented in the next Congress by men of enlarged and patriotic views, and true friends of the Union and the constitution. The disgrace of being represented by such men as a majority of our present delegation who are willing to trample on the constitution and endanger the Union, must be wiped out, and men elected who will faithfully represent the true feelings and views of the enlightened citizens of the state.

Democrats of Indiana—the eyes of the Union are turned upon you, and the hopes of all good citizens centre upon you, arresting the storm of fanaticism and party madness which threatens to sweep the fabric of our institutions. A heavy responsibility rests upon you, and we call upon you to arouse and prepare for the conflict. Let every man attend the state election, and every democrat vote the anti-slavery ticket. Let us roll up such a majority in October as will prove an earnest of what we shall do in November, and our example will encourage our brethren in other states to renew their exertions in the cause of democracy and equal rights, and may be the means of securing the election on James Buchanan and John C. Breckinridge, & averting from our country the evils which would inevitably follow the election of secessionists and disunionists to the highest offices in our state.

Friends of Freedom, Kansas!
Rev. S. Brenton voting to Legislate Slavery, and to extend the Fugitive Slave Law into Kansas.

The great day of the Republicans here is drawing near. "Kansas," and the slaves are called by them "negro slaves," party and charred with advocating the extension of slavery. By these specious pretences they have seduced many well meaning men into their ranks, who would if they properly understood the matter, vote the democratic ticket. As a proof of their insincerity, Mr. Palmer's notorious slaving firm of Palmer, Cook & Co., then, according to Bates' statement, communicated with N. Y. Banks, Speaker, and Senator Wilson, who shortly visited Fremont, and arranged that he should be the Fusion candidate. This is a very likely story, so far as Gov. Floyd is concerned. Mr. Bates most has strong faith in the credibility of his audience, if he's trying to give a moment's credit to such a p. e. p. t. i. t. m. G. V. Floyd could no more give the democratic nomination to Fremont than he could to the man in the moon—that is a business that they reserve to themselves through the medium of their delegates to the National Convention. The whole affair was a shrewd trick on the part of Palmer with which to operate on Bonk, Wilson, and their republican friends; and it succeeded admirably. The guinea-pig by the bait and were hooked. Fremont was secured the nomination by the abolitionists and northern know-nothings; as their candidate, but will, if elected, be the President of Palmer, Cook, & Co. and the other schemers and speculators, who intend to use him to carry out their schemes of public plunder. The fusionists have been overreached in the bargain, and the cunning Yankees have proved no match for the wily Wall-street shavers. The freedom-shakers will discover that they have been made the dupes and tools of a horde of specie-clad men who are meditating a grand pillage of the treasury of the United States.

Mr. BRENTON voted for this bill, and yet has the assurance to stamp the district, seeking a re-election, asking free soilers and abolitionists for their votes, and denouncing the Democrats as slavery extensionists! Was ever assurance and effrontery equal to this? How can the Rev. gentleman, after such a vote, have the base-faced impudence to ask a friend of whose aid they expect to make still larger hauls, and drain the national treasury of the surplus which has accumulated under the democratic administration.

More Free Speech.—Hon. John L. Robinson was brutally assailed at the close of a democratic meeting held at Richmond, Ind. on the 30th ult. In his speech he had animadverted somewhat severely on the conduct of Mr. Shomber, formerly of that place, who had joined Lane's banditti, and was killed at the head of his gun while attacking a settlement of southern men in Kansas. After the meeting he was proceeding to the cars he was attacked by several ruffians, one of whom struck at him with a club; but Mr. R. defended himself with his cane, warding off the murderous blows, and succeeded in getting to the cars with but little injury.

These reports are entirely destitute of truth, as we have before informed our readers. He is opposed to any connection between the state and any bank or other incorporation whatever, and will, if elected, strenuously oppose all efforts to bind the state to the present disposition of the State Bank, or to give the new bank any control or custody of the state funds. Mr. H. O. Colerick, and the other engagements will prevent his visiting the several townships, as he had intended, to place himself right on this question, with his fellow citizens, and he has therefore prepared a circular which will be found in another column, in which he gives the lie over his own signature to the misrepresentations so unblushingly made against him. We trust this will prove satisfactory to the public, and remove the false impression the reports to his prejudice have been the means of creating. We have every confidence not only that Mr. Hoagland will vote right on the questions referred to, but also that his whole course in the Legislature will merit and meet the hearty approval of his constituents.

Democratic County Convention.—Pursuant to a call from the Central Committee the delegates to the late County Convention reassembled on Saturday last, to nominate a candidate for Sheriff, in place of R. McMullen, deceased. On the 2d ballot Wm. Fleming having received a majority of all the votes was declared unanimously nominated.

This is an excellent nomination. Mr. Fleming while acting as deputy for Mr. McMullen, has become well acquainted with the duties of his office, and has discharged them faithfully, with a punctuality and correctness which have secured for him the respect and approbation of all who have had business for him to attend to. He will be elected by a large majority, and will make the best sheriff we have ever had in the county.

MAINE ELECTION.—Maine, which used to occupy a prominent position in the democratic column has gone back and lies now to fusionism. For three or four years past this state has been the hotbed of all the wings which now compose the fusion party—Maine Lawmen, negroes, and Know nothing, have all flourished here, and the result is, as every democrat expected, the fusionists have carried the state by a large majority.—We have little to hope for in the east. On the west depends the maintenance of law, order, and the Union.

The last accounts state that in 264 towns Hamlin, fusion Candidate for Governor, has 52, 182; Wells (Democrat) 32, 978; Patten, 4,693. Every member of Congress, the whole Senate, with the exception, perhaps, of one from Aroostook, and more than four-fifths of the House, are Republican. Hamlin's majority for Governor over Wells will be 20,000, and 15,000 over all.

The Fillmore men have organized a club in this city, and are making and incendiary in the front ranks. The cow stealer and horse dealer is evidently losing ground. Honest and respectable men are becoming ashamed of him and cannot vote for him.

Now Fremont got the nomination.
Rev. S. Brenton voting to Legislate Slavery, and to extend the Fugitive Slave Law into Kansas.

He G. C. Bates, formerly of Michigan, but lately of San Francisco, in a speech made at Alameda a week or two ago, stated that Gov. Floyd of course had an interview with Col. Fremont in October last, and offered him the democratic nomination for President, which Fremont declined on the grounds that he was opposed to the repeal of the Missouri Compromise. Mr. Palmer's notorious slaving firm of Palmer, Cook & Co., then, according to Bates' statement, communicated with N. Y. Banks, Speaker, and Senator Wilson, who shortly visited Fremont, and arranged that he should be the Fusion candidate.

This is a very likely story, so far as Gov. Floyd is concerned.

Mr. Bates most has strong faith in the credibility of his audience, if he's trying to give a moment's credit to such a p. e. p. t. m. G. V. Floyd could no more give the democratic nomination to Fremont than he could to the man in the moon—that is a business that they reserve to themselves through the medium of their delegates to the National Convention.

The fusionists have been overreached in the bargain, and the cunning Yankees have proved no match for the wily Wall-street shavers. The freedom-shakers will discover that they have been made the dupes and tools of a horde of specie-clad men who are meditating a grand pillage of the treasury of the United States.

And provided further, That any person lawfully held to service from such service, by such repeat and revival of said section, if such person should be permanently removed from such Territory or Territories prior to the first of January, eighteen hundred and fifty-eight, and any child or children born in either of said Territories, or any female lawfully held to service, if in like manner removed without said Territories before the expiration of that date, shall not be by reason of anything in this act emancipated from any service it might have had had that act been passed.

"And provided further, That any person lawfully held to service in any other state or Territory of the United States and escaping into either the territories of Kansas or Nebraska, may be recaptured and returned to the person or place where such service is due under any law of the United States which shall be in force upon the subject."

And provided further, That any person lawfully held to service in any other state or Territory of the United States and escaping into either the territories of Kansas or Nebraska, may be recaptured and returned to the person or place where such service is due under any law of the United States which shall be in force upon the subject."

Mr. BRENTON voted for this bill, and yet has the assurance to stamp the district, seeking a re-election, asking free soilers and abolitionists for their votes, and denouncing the Democrats as slavery extensionists! Was ever assurance and effrontry equal to this? How can the Rev. gentleman, after such a vote, have the base-faced impudence to ask a friend of whose aid they expect to make still larger hauls, and drain the national treasury of the surplus which has accumulated under the democratic administration.

by Mr. Field to use great caution, as he had for three successive nights foreseen a disaster, the exact details of which he did not yet distinctly perceive or comprehend. Payne immediately hauled a whale and his boat was soon taken out of sight by the rapid movements of the fish. The sea soon after discovered that Payne's boat had been staved to pieces as had been forecasted in his vision. He thereupon urged the captain to go to the rescue of their comrades. But the captain was irresolute, thinking that the effort to save them would be unavailing, especially as the cold was so intense that they must soon perish in the water. Field, however, was neither faithless nor inactive. Assisted by two of his companions, he lowered the boat, which shot out like an arrow over the dark blue waves. They soon found their comrades clinging to the wrecks of the boat and partially immersed in the water. They were severely bruised by the blow which the fish had given the boat and humiliated by the cold, but were all rescued from the perilous situation.

Some time since, while Mr. Field was in California and engaged in mining, he had a vision in which a piece of gold of considerable value was shown to him. The precise spot where it was deposited was plainly pointed out to the seer. According to the following day, he went to the place and found the treasure.

Mr. Field was interrogated respecting the manner in which he received his communactions.—He replied that they appeared like dreams, but that he was able to distinguish these experiences from ordinary dreaming by the presence of an old man who always appeared in connection with them. Mr. Field was accustomed to call the old man "John," but he affirmed that he now has reason to believe that John is in his own name who departed this life when he was a little child—too young to give any distinct account of his form, features or expression. The old man does not appear to the eyes when he appears in the vision. He looks at him with fixed and earnest gaze (he means him) and then the young man is able to read the thoughts of his spirit father, and to see all the forms and circumstances attending the objects and events intended to be represented.

Answer to Senator Bigler's Resolution—For men's Financial Operations—The Rock Republicans Consulate Indebted to Government.

The Washington Union, of August 20, has the reports of various documents called for by the Senate in its resolution a few days ago, concerning the accounts of Fremont with the United States while he was in California. They make a bad show indeed for the Colonel. They in introducing the report say:

"Heretofore we have been compelled to grope in the dark, having only isolated facts from which we might draw inferences or presumptions, and, therefore, however well-grounded they might have been, there was room for doubt. In these reports the connecting circumstances and facts all appear, like the links in a chain. They touch each other and bring the mind irresistibly to a conclusion fatal to Fremont."

"It has been a matter of wonder how a young army officer, with no known or visible means or resources, should suddenly be enabled to establish a large ranch, filled with herds of cattle &c., and enter into supplying Indians with beef in excess of quantities, and thus be enabled, in a short time, to prefer a claim against the Government amounting to several hundred thousand dollars. Equally surprising was it that he should have money with which to purchase a Spanish claim to sixty odd leagues of land, of fabulous value, the very rocks and stones of which, we are informed, are glittering with gold! So, also, was it inexplicable to the initiated, who are ignorant of the manner in which 'claims' against the Government are sometimes gotten up, how an officer of five or six months, a small battalion of men, numbering, perhaps, three or four hundred, should incur liabilities on account of subsistence, supplies, &c., amounting to more than $1,000,000. But these reports and accompanying documents explain all. They unravel the mystery. Heros by the thousand, come at the rate of a beef a day for each soldier, and nearly all, it seems, certified to as 'correct and just,' and applied to the public service" by the innumerable Black Republican candidate for President, John C. Fremont. But notwithstanding the skill with which these claims were gotten up, backed by the certificate of Lieutenant Col. Fremont, and the great influence brought to bear in their favor, it appears that only about $10,000, or about one-seventh part of the whole amount, were recommended for allowance and payment, leaving some $700, still outstanding and unpaid, and which we are quite sure will never be paid until John C. Fremont is elected President."

Fusion Retrenchment.

The appropriations made at the late session of Congress for the support of the Government amount to the enormous sum of $98,604,000—It is to this sum be added the $14,000,000 deducted appropriation for the support of the army, we have the grand total of $82,604,000. The estimates of Secretary Guthrie for the fiscal year submitted last December were as follows:

Receipts $71,500,000
Expenditures 57,351,363

Excess of receipts over exp'd. $14,048,635

But according to appropriations already made, there will be expended at least $80,000,000.

Excess of expenditures over estimates, $22,548,635.

New York Aug. 29.

The Evening Post gives the names of a list of 49 persons who died at Fort Hamilton, since July 24th of yellow fever. The Post also learns that between Saturday and Monday last, there were 16 new cases at that place. A proportion to the population greater than the mortality at Norfolk.

It is rumored that efforts are being made to induce Gov. Johnson to decline the nomination for the Vice Presidency, in favor of Mr. Dayton. The matter causes considerable excitement among the North Americans, who declare that that event, that they will turn their whole strength over to Fillmore. Some deny the truth of this rumor, and declare that Johnson will not forsake the North American cause.

The Fashion.—We have it on the infallible authority of Jenkins that it is no longer correct to say "the height of fashion." When ladies wish to convey the idea that any one of their acquaintances is at all beau mis, they say "she was dressed in the full breadth of the fashion," only, perhaps, it would be more exact to put it in the plural, as a lady's dress certainly takes now-a-days a great deal more than one "breadth." However, the alteration in the term is a decided improvement that like the dress itself, is now quite as "broad as it is long."—Punch.

A lady made a great sensation in Broadway the other day by starting a new fashion in bonnets. Instead of wearing her bonnet on the back of her head, no one could see it—a gorging, lumpy curtain behind her on a crimson velvet cushion. The result was that every one could perceive she had a bonnet, and the lady herself had not the bother of carrying it. The effect was considered extremely light and airy.

The Military Conqueror.—In a campaign of a few short months in California, Colonel Fremont "took" 38,000 acres of land and six hundred head of beef cattle. Uncle Sam paid the bill, but the hero got the "critters" and the pasture. Hurray for Mary Posse!

A Reverend Professor in a Theological Seminary, speaking of a notorious newspaper, says: "There is very fair talent in the independent. The editors are able men, and some of the contributions are valuable. The principal defect in the paper is, that it has never experienced a
